Interpersonal Skills

Organization skills

Good organizational skills in a work context, particularly with regard to the ability to program, organize and control varied activities and projects, defining objectives, establishing deadlines and determining priorities.

Skills related to the work

Ability to identify, interpret and evaluate different types of code and relate them logically and with critical sense. Ability to adapt to changes and new professional challenges and to be involved in the development of assigned activities.

Personal Projects

I present some projects that I did and would like to share

● drena

2020 - 2021

drena conversa is a mobile application available for download on the PlayStore and aims to complement and facilitate users' access to a social network called Drena available at Drena.pt.

The project is under development, but is now available for use.

● Star Launcher

2020 - 2021

This application is a launcher for various games and applications made in Java and is intended to be an entertainment and leisure tool.

It was carried out as part of the professional aptitude test at Escola Secundária de Camões.

● CoastWatch Camoniano

2019 - 2020

This project was carried out as part of a national Portuguese website development competition, SiteStar 7. It was carried out at Escola Secundária de Camões with 2 colleagues and a supervisor.

The website's objective is to promote environmental citizenship, publicize the CoastWatch project and publicize the fieldwork carried out by the school's students.
